Clarke

CD

From

Interview with Mr. F. N. Leavens, Bolton, Ont.
9 June, 1933.

11584

Lot 6, Con. 7, Albion.

John Clarke's children were John. Jr., William, James, Charles, Robert, Percy, who went to Louisiana, Maggie and several other daughters, all unmarried. Another family of old maids. They are cousins of Mrs. T.D. Elliott's. They were Roman Catholics in the Old Country, I think their name was Clary. They wanted to marry into a Protestant family, or had some similar reason for the change of name to Clark. They are members of the United Church.

The Hambly's were from York Co. Mrs. Samuel Egan was a Miss Hambly.

From interview with Mr. F. N. Leavens. Bolton 9 June 1933 CD.
Lot 6, Con. 7, Albion.

The railroad was changed from its former right of way through the Williamson property, on lot 6, now going through the Clark property, to the south.
